MERCY IN GARAGOA, REPUBLIC OF COLOMBIA

Hell

She kissed Jesus' feet, and she separated them. "I don't know what happened, but I saw an immense hole that opened under the feet of the Lord. I don't know if we traveled through it, but soon I found myself in hell. I heard screams, laments, there was desperation, that place was horrible. I felt fear; I thought I would die of dread, and told myself: "Poor me, where am I Lord?" And the Lord answered: "Don't be afraid of anything, nothing will happen to you, I am with you, observe well".

Then I saw a round burner like the mouth of a volcano. Immense flames came out. It was like a pot where you cook the sugar cane to make the molasses. Like a lake of sulfur boiling rapidly, there were a lot of people there screaming and asking for help without being heard. Some threw insults, others were dressed luxuriously, and others were naked. I think they had the clothes with which they were buried. A very rich man, with capes and rings in his fingers, and chains in his neck, put his hand out and said: "save me for this", and he showed a bunch of onions. But the flames started consuming the bunch of onions until his fingers were burned. I think it was because of something he gave, but without love, or the only thing he gave away when he was alive.

The torment was cruel; there was no peace, I asked the Lord: "Is this the gnashing of teeth?" And He answered: "No, not yet. It's just part of the suffering of the condemned".

Around the burner there were demons sitting with their legs crossed. They all had long pitchforks. Their look was horrible. Their eyes red, wicked mouth, wicked smile, of an almost black, almost grey, color. They smoked and smoked something that made them more rebellious. And they drank a reddish liquid that filled them with arrogance.

Suddenly they all stood up in a firm stance. The condemned wanted to disappear. They were burning in the lake of fire, it was an incalculable multitude. Hell trembled, everything trembled. Through a door a demon was entering of almost two meters tall, more horrible than the other demons. This one had horns, claws, a tail and wings like a bat. The others did not have anything like that. He screamed and kicked his heels, and everything trembled again. I asked who he was, and He told me: "It's Satan, Lucifer, king of hell". Even the other demons were afraid of him, and he gave an order, and all ran towards him with their pitchforks in their hands, in a line like a battalion of soldiers. He told them something I was not able to hear, because I was so fearful and I did not ask the Lord. If the Lord would not have held me at that moment, I would have died of terror.

The Lord told me: "Here there is not a moment of peace; here there is no love; it is the kingdom of hate. Here come all those that despised Me when they were alive, free and voluntarily, preferred the bad instead of the good. Now observe well, because some are beginning to gnash their teeth, eternal suffering and death, worm that does not die, and fire that does not quench. Because whoever is not with Me is dead; that is the true death, not the one you call death".

The demons ran towards the burner after Satan's order, and would dip in their pitchforks and pick up the condemned. They squirmed like snakes without being able to get loose. They screamed; they contorted. Blood was coming out of them. Some were pierced in the back, others by the legs, and others by the head who tried to grab the pitchforks to get out. I asked the Lord: "Why are those souls bleeding?" And He told me: "To hell they come in body and soul, like to heaven they go with body and soul. This is the first hell, and they have already been judged. Here are all the condemned since the creation of the world until The Flood". The demons placed the condemned like in a zinc sheet, galvanized, and held them with the pitchforks between two and three demons. Later with a nail clipper, a little longer, they would light pieces of their meat and little by little pulled out their nails, their fingers, and the hair. The screams were desperate; they were screams that ended in laments...

So they would not scream, they took a kind of arm that I have not seen on earth. They put it inside their mouths. That arm opened like a hand, and when it closed it grabbed the tongue and took it out, either by twisting or tearing it. Later with a very sharp knife, they started to slice them, to cut them into pieces similar to a steak.

The condemned could not scream, their eyes seemed as they were going to pop out. And their jaws hit one against the other, make a horrible gnashing noise. After tearing off the meat, they cut the bones and smashed them to pieces. The last thing they did was cutting the head, until just pieces remained, everything looked like nothing in the sheet. There was blood, pieces of meat, bones; it was horrible. And in the bones there were worms.

Then I told the Lord: "Poor people". I thought they would never die, but at last they died, even though the pieces of meat still moved. He told me: "Death does not exist here, look well". The demons took the zinc sheet and threw the pieces of the person's bones over a hole that had flames and sharp irons, a kind of mill to turn everything into dust. On the bottom of that hole was again the hole of the pot.

When the dust fell I saw that the people again had a body and whoever let themselves be caught again by the pitchfork would suffer the same torture again. And then I asked the Lord: "What's happening, why do they have to live again?" And He told me: "Death does not exist anymore, like men call it. Here the eternal death is endured, which is the separation from GOD. And to come to this place of torments, each one got here freely. It was the election they made. I was not able to do anything for them. When they could they despised Me and they came to this place not created for men, for men Heaven was created. This place was created by Satan and his angels".

I noticed that the greater the sin, the greater the suffering. Each one pays according to his debt. And each one has different punishments, but all suffer greatly. I noticed that with the organ they sinned is with the one they suffer the most.

As they sank in the lake of fire, they appeared in a place of burning sands, red hot. The heat was suffocating, they couldn't breathe and screamed: "We are thirsty! We are thirsty!"

Then the demons would jump on their napes and open their mouths, tearing them to the ears. Another demon grabbed the hot sand, so they would drink it. They were so desperate that they ran uncontrollably in the darkness illuminated by the sands.

They clashed with other condemned and fought like alley dogs. When they reached the end there were rocks with doors, each one look just one door, when they opened it there was a hole, where the poisonous animals and those they feared the most when they were on earth. The Lord told me they were psychological punishments. I did not ask what that was.

Oh, poor condemned, what desperation, what never ending nightmare!

When they were able to get out of there, you could see those animals on their bodies and coming out of their mouths and every other place. The only place they could run, was through a pass of cutting stones; they would fall and get cut. Some fell forward and cut everything, others backwards, and at the end there was a flat, whoever did not get to stand up quickly, a round stone would flatten him like a roach. When they were able to get up, they threw themselves inside a hole that was there, and would fall to the pot in the beginning, and everything repeated again.

The Lord told me: "Did you notice that here there is no rest for even a second? Now I am going to show you another place that is waiting for this perverse and wicked generation. I will show you who suffers the most and who are on the way to hell".

Then I saw three ovens bigger than the first one and Satan shouting: "Judge them, I have worked enough to give them a welcome to my kingdom. I have invented new punishments and torments. Let those who could have saved themselves and did not want to, to come to me those who served me on earth.

Then I saw some women, crawling with chains, carrying loads like mules; they were atrociously hit and tormented. Their wombs were opened, they let them cry; they cut them up; they hit them with ropes as of iron; they insulted them; they showed them the children they had killed, and they tied them to their breasts. They listened to the cries and screams of their children (Mother, why did you kill me!!!!) and with every scream from the child, their breasts tore apart and started to bleed, their ears bled, all of that was horrible. And I asked the Lord: "Lord JESUS who are these women who suffer so much?" He answered: "These are all the women that kill their children through abortion. They suffer because they made tombs of their wombs, and the womb is for giving life. The sin of abortion is very difficult for my Father to forgive. It's not enough to confess it, if there is not a sincere repentance. A lot of prayer and penitence must be made, asking for Mercy to God the Father, and to the child they murdered. Their screams and cries will be in front of GOD's throne and their blood will clamor from earth to heaven".

And He told me: "Pray, Pray for them, because some of them are still alive and can repent, because many are on the way to hell".

By their side I saw men and women who suffered the same torments as them. And I asked: "Who are these and why do they suffer the same torments?" The Lord said: "These are all the accomplices of the abortion; those who helped. Here doctors, friends, nurses, family, or some person who heard that they were going to abort and did not tell them, don't do it".

We kept on walking through that wide way and I saw men coming with their heads down, with their tongues out; they were pounding them with stones, their hands and feet were burned, and they pierced it with prickres. The demons unleashed all their ire against these men. I saw how they suffered and asked: "Who are these and why do they suffer so much?" And the Lord told me: "They are the ones called to the highest glory of heaven but have lost it. They have sold themselves and have sold Me. They are my priests. The sins of the priest are doubly painful for Me, that's why the punishment is double. They are martyred in the tongue because they have silenced My Word and have been silenced dogs, stuttering when they talk. They have consumed themselves in the passions and filled up with wine. For them is damnation and fire".

I saw women and men next to them suffering great pains and asked: "And who are these?" And He told me: "They are the ones who sinned with them. The woman who makes a priest fall, it would have been better if she never was born, because she is more damned than Judas. The same for the man who makes another priest sin".

Behind them there was a multitude that followed that way and suffered the same torments. "And who are these?" And He said: "These are all those that got away from Me and My Church because of the priest's sin and did not pray for him. The priest was made to save man. If he does not do it, you help him to be condemned. For My Word says: "His watchmen are blind, they are all without knowledge; they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; dreaming, lying down, loving to slumber. The dogs have a mighty appetite; they never have enough. The shepherds also have no understanding; they have all turned to their own way, each to his own gain, one and all. "Come," they say, "let us get wine, let us fill ourselves with strong drink; and tomorrow will be like this day, great beyond measure." The righteous man perishes, and no one lays it to heart; devout men are taken away, while no one understands. For the righteous man is taken away from calamity." (Isaiah 56: 10-12; 57:1)

I saw behind these, men and women suffering the same torments, and I told Him: "Who are these?" And He said: "These are all the religious. Pray, pray for them, so they will love Me and be able to save themselves. Never speak bad of mine. It's as if you tied the finger with a red pepper and would put it inside My eye. Just pray, pray for them, and don't cause me torments".

I saw men and women with their blindfolded, behind them walked many people chained. The demons insulted them, hit them, and raped them. Their torment was cruel, and I asked: "Who are these?" And He said: "These are all the warlocks, sorcerers that have let themselves be blinded by Satan. Immense torment awaits them, because they lived closer to Satan here on earth, more than to Me. And they will suffer more than ever, for having served evilness, freely and voluntarily. The chained are all those who consulted them, and all those that order an evil witchcraft. It's preferable that they kill face to face, and not like this. Because it is written, that my Father will not save this race, out of Me, damned dogs, for you there will not be fire nor coal to warm the bread". (Isaiah 47:12)

Pray, pray because there are many that can repent. Also the multitude that follows them and suffer torments are the believers in horoscopes, spirit invokers, any person that wants to know the future, or consults with one of them, is worthy of hell's eternal fire.

Then I saw men and women tied with chains in their hands. Each one pulled for his side, they pulled and fell between each other. The demons told them, you are suffering for his fault, hit him harder. And I asked: "Who are they?" And He said: "They are all the matrimones that do not live in peace. They are two beasts tied by the same string". And I asked: "Why are they going to hell?" And He said: "Kiss my hand" and I did and He placed it in my eyes. And I saw that in those homes there were insults, jealousy, fights, and Satan screaming at JESUS: "Look, look how I have the married!! What did you get out of sanctifying in the sacrament? Like the first couple (Adam and Eve) they belong to me, but now I will make them lose the glory. I won't allow them to pray or to go to Mass. And he laughed with shrieks of laughter..., while JESUS cried. "Pray, because there are many that can repent and change".

I saw men and women tied by the feet, and suffered worse than the others. And I asked: "Who are these?" And he answered: "These are all who live without marrying, or have committed adultery or fornication". And I asked: "Why do they go to hell?" And He touched my eyes and I saw JESUS blessing all the unions between man and woman when they were intimate, like the first couple. But when they were not married, it was Satan who slept beside them. He would hit the Lord Jesus, spitting his face saying: "Look at your creature, the man turned by me into an animal. Even worse for her. What served you to die for them? I will destroy your sacrament that allows them to unite in holiness. But I will make each bed a hellish fire involved in passions not yet allowed. Because they hear me, even though I do not offer them a kingdom of peace, but of pain..."

And JESUS told me: "My suffering for them has been in vain, that's why they are going to hell". And I saw that one of the punishments for them is to see the man or woman for which they condemned themselves, Satan gave them a sharp knife and they cut themselves and took out pieces of meat until reaching the heart. Saying: damned, damned, because of your fault I am here in hell. I want to take you out of my bosom forever and I can't.

The Lord told me: "Pray, pray because some are alive and they can repent".

I saw men tied with men, and women tied with women, tied by their waists that balanced, like savage animals pulling a prey. "And who are these and why do they suffer?" The Lord said: "These are all kinds of homosexuals and lesbians, that freely rejected Me, and were incapable of being chaste offering their lives". And I saw how Satan, was in bed with these poor beings, giving them more desire without being capable of ever being satiated. And I saw how the spirits tormented the parts with which they sinned. And I saw that they pierced them with sticks from the rectum up to the mouth, and rotated them.

And I asked: "And the prey?" And He answered: "They are all the ones that went to bed with them. Pray because some are still alive that can be saved if they repent. The homosexual person that offers his chastity to Me, and lives without sinning, I will spill my infinite mercy because I love them immensely".

All anal relationship is condemned by the Lord. It is counter nature. We cannot condemn those that practice homosexuality if we do the same.

I saw men and women with animal faces, and they suffered immensely. Besides them, some were wearing some ribbons and some pages or magazines where there were naked men and women. They also suffered and went to hell. And I asked the Lord: "Who are they and are they also going to hell?" He said: "Yes, they will go to hell if they don't repent. The first ones are all that have had sexual relations with animals. Reducing themselves to the level of the beast, and even more that it, because if she would think (the beast), she would not do it. And anyone who makes an obsession of sex through movies, magazines, grotesque jokes, prostitution, and dirty words. They deserve the eternal fire with all its torments, because they have learned to speak the lowliness of Satan, and not talk and live the sanctity and purity of God One and Triune.

I saw men and women of different ages, walking as if blind hitting everything. And a demon was beside them, making them fall more and more. "And who are these, Lord?" And He told me: "These are all the drunks, alcoholics. They go because they have destroyed the temple of the Holy Spirit, where the Holy Trinity resides, in their own bodies. And they have harmed their likeness, their families, forgetting the First Commandment: Love GOD and your neighbor as yourself. These have not even learned to love themselves".

And beside them were going people with their lips broken, with smoke in their noses. And I asked: "And who are these?" He said: "These are all the smokers of all kinds of weeds, drugs, cigarettes or vices. And they go because they have not loved their own bodies, and the ones who go with them, are all those who offer them or make them sin. I have told you, that whoever gives a glass of water is worthy of eternal heaven. But also the one who offers or makes someone sin is worthy of eternal fire. Pray because some can change their lives and free themselves of this punishment".

I saw men and women in miniskirts or with indecent garments, and behind them, a great number of men and women. And I asked: "Why do they go to hell and why are they being tormented?" He answered: "The woman who uses a miniskirt goes to hell, for corrupting man by corrupting him with her dress. And the same to man, they go to let themselves be seduced. Be careful with your garments. The woman should not wear pants and if she wears one, it should not be tight. Many look like a mule with brakes. Men should not wear their pants tight or those that look like skirts".

I saw men and women of all ages, even children, with their hands cut, some without fingers. And I asked Him: "Who are they and why are they going to hell?" He said: "These are all the crooks, thieves, scammers, the ones who do not pay their debts, the ones who only dedicated themselves to their work, the avarice, the ones with only God money in their hearts; the ones who never gave alms to the poor, or helped the smallest of his brothers. They are all those that at the end I will have to say get away from Me cursed, go to the eternal fire, prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, 36 I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me.' (Matthew 25: 35-36)

I saw men and women of all ages, that had their tongue hanging out, and a demon went sitting atop their shoulders, putting his tongue inside theirs. It was a great quantity of people and I asked the Lord: "Who are they, Lord, and why do they bring that demon?" He said: "These are all the gossipers, slanderers, liars, all that are incapable of dominating their tongue. What did they do wrong? Well it is loaded with mortal venom, like it's written in my Apostle James: 'Learn to tame your tongue'. The demon they take is the demon of gossip. Pray so they will convert, because some are still alive, so they won't come to this place of punishment".

I saw men and women that had frogs and vipers coming out of their mouths. I asked: "And who are they?" He said: "They are all the ones who could have taught my faith and my doctrine, and didn't do it. But instead taught false things based in theories that cannot be proven. They are the teachers, writers, catechists, priests, and head of families, and everyone else that can teach my faith, and every person that destroys the faith of my little children. I have written to them, poor he who teaches another word, poor he who scandalizes one of my little ones, it would be better for them to tie around their neck a millstone and throw themselves into the sea. Pray, pray because for them the punishment is tremendous, so they won't reach the place of punishment".

I saw families and parents and children hitting each other. Out of their mouths came flames of fire. And I asked: Why do they come here and why does the devil torments them, and why are flames coming out?" The Lord answered: "They are the parents that did earn the right to be loved and respected by their children. They insulted them. They are the haughty and rude children with their parents." And I asked: Why do they go there?" And He told me: At the end when each one presents himself in front of the just judge, if they were not good they will say: 'I'll be damned because I did not respect and loved my parents'. And for that curse he goes to hell. Or he might say: "I'll be damned for not obeying and following the Catholic faith'. Or in the contrary, they are going to say, 'My parents be damned because they did not teach me to respect and love them". For that curse the parents will go to hell".

On the contrary, parents must respect and give love to their children, never with insults. "Pray, pray because some can save themselves".

I saw that in those homes, where the father and mother insult the children, the demons come out of their mouths like worms or snakes that crawl. And little by little they go and enter the other child, or the husband who is far away. I saw that the only way to get rid of those demons in that house was to pray, especially the holy rosary.

I saw all class of people throwing their money up in the air, and around them people dying of hunger. And who are these? He answered: Those are all the waste their money on useless things; the ones who buy unnecessary things; the ones who have parties for their tastes. They invite only the ones that can bring them something or that will invite them to another party. They are all the ones that wasted by buying too many things, and they let them rot in their refrigerators, instead of giving them away. And they never do works of mercy. They only think in themselves while around the world others are dying of hunger. Pray, pray for them so they will convert and they won't go to the place of punishment".

I saw young people with headsets. I did not ask what type of equipment they were because I don't know them, connected to a radio. They walked like sleepwalkers. Through the headsets scorpions, frogs, and death entered their ears. I asked: Who are they? And He told me: "They are all who listen to Satanic music, rock, metallic, and have converted to being adorers of the devil; that will lead them to their own death, and make them lose their sense of life. They are all the ones who enter to the Satanic cult, discoteques, or lock themselves up in their homes listen with high volume that damned music. For them life has no meaning, they will not study or do anything else. They get lazy and rebellious. This young adulthood is going towards perdition, there is no longer any innocence in any child over 4 years old. The damned television and the music has perverted them, and their hearts blinded is getting away from Me. Pray, pray so I may be able to rescue them because they travel like flies to their deaths. Pray, pray so they won't abandon everything and they won't reach the place of punishment selected for them".

I saw men and women of all classes, walking backwards, and a demon dragged them, and when they walked they would stumble with each other, and that made them fall. I asked who they were and He told me: "They are all that were following Me in the way to Heaven, but the difficulties, the tripping's, the discouragement, the problems with the same groups, made them abandon Me. And today they are going on the way to hell and taking others with them. For these it will be very difficult come back to Me. Because they have a demon that stops them, and this demon at the end delivers them to Satan. And he will be even prouder for having beaten one of mine. Pray, pray for them, for my heart is wounded continuously for this new Judas' that do not want to suffer for Me".

I saw men and women of different ages and classes, hitting their chest with a knife. They fought to remove any human likeness, from the breast down to the groin. When they hit themselves they bled while a demon shouted: You have suffered too much for him, hit him harder, hit him harder, don't forgive him, don't forgive him. Then I asked: "Who are they, Lord, and who are the ones in the breast?" The Lord answered: "They are all the ones that never forgave their brothers fault; they harbor grudges, hate, resentment, quarrels, thinking they were the only ones who suffered. The persons they carry in their breasts are supposedly their enemies. And for eternity of eternities, they will have them on their breasts as punishment. Pray, pray so they will forgive as I forgive, because if you do not forgive the faults of your brothers, My Father will not forgive them".

I saw men and women of all ages, their hands bleeding, and when they looked at them, they screamed in terror. And a demon was cutting their back, back and forth, turning them into nothing. I asked: Who are they, Lord?" He said: "These are all the assassins, the kidnappers, the robbers, all who have taken someone's life in a physical, psychological, and spiritual way. They are the ones who had been able to save a life, but did not do it, and their blood clamors from earth to the heavens. I give life and I take it away when I want to, no one outside of GOD can take a life, not to a child, an old person, a sick one; only GOD disposes of them. Whoever does it, the greatest punishments and torments await him, in the sulfur lake where the worm does not die and the fire does not go out. Pray, pray because many are alive and can repent. My daughter, pray especially for doctors".

We kept on walking and I saw men, women, young adults, and children of all classes. They were grating between themselves as if lost and confused. The demons covered them with their shadows and telling them: Don't believe, don't believe. And I asked: Who are they?" He told me: They are all those who belong or used to belong to my Church, but abandoned the Sacraments. Or if they go, they don't believe in them, or in the grace, or in the sanctifying power through them. They have despised the GOD of truth for the lie. The ones who will suffer the most are the ones who did not believe in my Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist, and they were sacrilegious. Because My Body is true food and My Blood is true drink, and whoever eats my body and drinks my blood remains in Me and I will raise him up on the last day. Pray, pray because some can come back".

I saw men, young adults, women, and children with age of reason, in great quantities, walking with fear, they would step on any light that could illuminate them. The demons shouted: "Don't believe in the light, don't believe!" I asked: "Who are they?" He said: "They are those that have committed any sin and have not confessed it, because of shame or because they don't believe. Or if they confessed it, they did not do it with true repentance. GOD knows the heart of each man. Pray, pray so they will convert. No one that does not confess his sin can enter the kingdom of heaven". Then I exclaimed: "Lord JESUS, my GOD, who can save himself?"

He answered: "Come and follow Me. For GOD nothing is impossible." I shut up and we kept on walking. We found thousands and thousands that were on the way to hell. I did not ask who they were. I just was thinking: "Mercy, my GOD, mercy Lord..."

He didn't tell who they were, or what their sin was. They were all ages and classes, and because of something I did not understand, it was made known to me, that they belong to all kinds of religions, faith, and creeds. Because GOD judges over every person that comes to this earth, being born wherever he is born, and believing whatever he believes. After walking and walking JESUS told me: "Here the way to hell ends". And He sat down on some stones. His wounds were bleeding, his clothes were red, and He was crying. I told Him: "What' is wrong Lord and my GOD? Why are your clothes red, if they were white when you came, and why are you bleeding, and why are you crying?"

And He told me: "I cry when I know that for them my sacrifice was useless and blood was spilled in vain. Because they did not want to save themselves; they despised me. My clothes are red wet with my blood that I have shed in the pain of their sins, and they did not want to receive it, since my forgiveness is given on the part of My Father, but they did not receive Me. And I have written to them, whoever receives Me, I will make him son of GOD. Oh my daughter, pray, pray, help Me in the salvation of men and their souls. We embraced and prayed together, and suddenly I was in my room, heavily embraced by Him, the fear was terrifying, my whole body trembled. I told Him: "Lord I am scared". He placed his hand over my head and told me: "This that you have seen you will not tell until 6 months from now, when you have recovered completely. Later I will take you to heaven and I will show the way and who are on it".

We prayed together, he said goodbye leaving me in peace, and He looked at me again. He left crying, his clothes red, and his wounds bleeding. He waved goodbye with his hand, and he disappeared from my sight.
